

swanngalleries.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE June 26, 2018

Contact: Alexandra Nelson Communications Director 212-254-4710, ext. 19 alexandra@swanngalleries.com

Duels, Deaths & Democracy in Collection Spanning U.S. History

Swann Galleries' Season-Closing Single-Owner Sells 91%

Centerment at Are for I have this moment met of becaut with a letter at this place upon ing me of our incharable lot - I shall a attempt to expect my palings on this in; language cannot Suriche them him I have last a find & father - they thing proper for the to her londing to a key Levis . I cannot coust them; but week them with sinceres water I remain your most the ?? Charles fotoson to Sinchary 60° dear

New York—On June 21, the auction of Revolutionary & Presidential Americana from the Collection of William Wheeler III at Swann Galleries saw a 91% sell-through rate for important autographs, letters and documents from some of the biggest players in American history. Wheeler, a manufacturing consultant from a long line of New Englanders, devoted much of his adult life to acquiring illuminating pieces of Americana from the Revolutionary War and nearly every president.

Wheeler harbored a special fascination with the life and deeds of Andrew Jackson, which led to a run of 34 significant letters and documents signed by the president, 88% of which found buyers. Highlights included a retained copy of a letter to be published by editor Thomas Eastin, providing his own account of the altercations that would lead to his killing Charles Dickinson in a duel. One of two known complete drafts, it reached $7,000.

An 1833 autograph letter signed as president to his adoptive son, Andrew Jackson, Jr., a request that he go to their plantation (the Hermitage) in response to reports of grieving and ailing slaves, sold for $9,375.

The 1876 presidential election between Rutherford B. Hayes and Samuel Tilden was overshadowed in South Carolina by the gubernatorial contest on the same ticket. An archive of 153 items relating to the 1 South Carolina 1th order Allerton theater Sift application made of Concern Charman of the the the state of the second state of t (maining original action independent of that of state Officers, shenit, ve.) as to mat of state Officers, & hearthy set, I as to the the Hat decight be and browned of the france of the state, but second control would be the state, but second of the officer the states, but second of the states and the states which is not the states and the states is the state of the states the states is the state of the states the states is the state of the states the states is the states with state and the states is the same to be parts to be reall of from to the state Copland, Longet the super state offi-1644, I for the same fits in the bol Col. 11th Selegon to Colombia from Sad. Showing for two to concer, + our to two of Marco Jon Sad. Fincer by coder of the Sec. of New Jon any simulation of the Sec. of Colombia.

election, which resulted in riots, lynch-mobs and a contested victory for the governorship, topped the sale at $23,400.

Also available was an autograph letter signed by Patrick Henry to Colonel William Fleming requesting that the militia in Montgomery County, Virginia, be prepared in the case of an attack by Native Americans in 1778. The letter more than doubled its high estimate, selling after breakneck bidding to a collector for $16,250. Additional Revolutionary highlights included a brief autograph letter signed to Ira Allen, the brother of Ethan Allen, from Thomas Paine, concerning a missed connection at the subversive Caffe Boston in Paris in the 1790s ($10,000), and a pay order signed by 15 members of the Massachusetts House of Representatives "to defray [the] costs" of express rider Jonathan Park on his urgent ride to Philadelphia in May 1776 ($13,750).

In addition to fresh perspectives on monumental events, the auction provided an endearing human side to some of history's most well-known players. A fine example is a heartfelt letter from Charles Pinckney to Tobias Lear, George Washington's secretary, upon learning of the first president's death in 1799. He wrote, "I shall not attempt to express my feelings on this occasion: language cannot describe them. In him I have lost a friend & father. Say everything proper for me to Mrs. Washington & Mrs. Lewis. I cannot console them; but I can weep with them." This rare missive was purchased by an institution for $16,250, above a high estimate of $10,000.

Specialist Marco Tomaschett was especially pleased with the institutional attention to the auction, saying, "Museums and archives recognized the historical significance of the personal correspondence featured in this sale, especially the letter from Pinckney acknowledging the death of Washington."

The next auction of Americana at Swann Galleries, featuring The Harold Holzer Collection of Lincolniana, is scheduled for September 27, 2018. The next auction of Autographs at Swann Galleries will be on November 8, 2018. The house is currently accepting quality consignments for autumn auctions.

Additional highlights can be found here.

Captions:

Lot 49: Charles Coatesworth Pinckney, Autograph Letter Signed, sending condolences after Washington's death, Harper's Ferry, 1799. Sold June 21, 2018 for $16,250. (Pre-sale estimate $7,000 to $10,000) Lot 131: Rutherford B. Hayes, archive related to the 1876 election in South Carolina. Sold June 21, 2018 for $23,400. (Pre-sale estimate $5,000 to $7,500)

Specialist: Marco Tomaschett • mtomaschett@swanngalleries.com • 212-254-4710 x 12 Press: Alexandra Nelson • alexandra@swanngalleries.com • 212-254-4710 x 19

Please credit all images Courtesy of Swann Auction Galleries or @swanngalleries on social media.

#

ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE, ADDL. IMAGES & COMPLETE PRICES REALIZED ON REQUEST

Swann Auction Galleries is a third-generation family business as well as the world's largest auction house for works on paper. In the last 75 years, Swann has repeatedly revolutionized the trade with such innovations as the first U.S. auction dedicated to photographs and the world's only department of African-American Fine Art. More than 30 auctions and previews are held annually in Swann Galleries' two-floor exhibition space in Midtown Manhattan, and online worldwide. Visit swanngalleries.com for more information.